

Lisa Levesque

Certified Business Performance Coach

FocalPoint

Lisa Levesque is a Certified Business Performance Coach with FocalPoint Business Coaching and Training. As a FocalPoint Coach, Lisa works directly with business owners, executives, corporate teams and other professionals to change their business lives for the better. In addition to Coaching, Lisa helps leaders with strategic development through delivery of targeted training courses, performance assessments and general business solutions.

Lisa has a passion for helping business leaders and owners achieve their full potential by improving their business operations and enhancing their profitability. She is an expert in business productivity and has helped several Fortune 500 companies reduce costs while increasing revenue and gaining market share. As a Coach, Lisa works with the business owner to develop a plan personalized to their needs and introduces proven business concepts that, when implemented, help to generate a healthy return on investment.

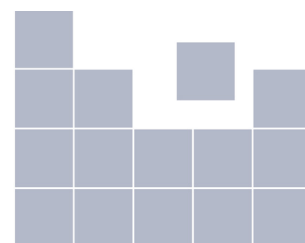

Prior to FocalPoint, Lisa spent over 25 years at Fortune 500 companies where she held leadership roles in the areas of Finance, Marketing, Risk Management, Service Strategy and Distribution. Lisa's deep and varied corporate experience is an asset to her Coaching clients as they leverage it to drive business success.
