

Janice M. O'Reilly, CPA, CGMA

Partner, AAFCPAs

Janice is a Partner in the Consulting Division of AAFCPAs and leader of the Managed Accounting Solutions (MAS) practice, which provides “right-size” outsourced accounting solutions, from cloud-based bookkeeping to CFO deliverables, designed to optimize the effectiveness of the modern finance function. Public, privately-held, and nonprofit organizations value the pragmatic assessment, infrastructure set-up, and flawless execution of their accounting & finance deliverables—all completed with the resources and technical expertise of AAFCPAs’ full-service CPA and consulting firm.

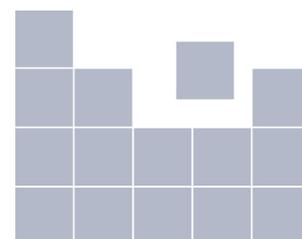

Janice is a charismatic leader and collaborative senior finance and business executive with an entrepreneurial approach to problem solving, and extensive global operating experience. Her roles as an angel investor, board member, consultant, CFO, controller, president, public company CFO, and Treasurer make her highly sought-after for corporate financial and operational advice in diverse industries, such as: software, technology, digital media, and professional services.

Janice has a demonstrated ability to help AAFCPAs’ clients achieve corporate goals, both through internal strategies such as employee recruitment, restructuring, and process improvement, as well as through areas of international expansion, foreign subsidiary establishment, growth strategy, IPO, secondary offerings, M&A, joint ventures, capital raising and investor relationships. She consults in the following: internal controls; SOX readiness; GAAP; equity; SEC filings; due diligence; corporate governance; strategic planning; regulatory compliance; compensation; and implementation of new accounting standards, including revenue recognition and lease accounting.

Janice’s understanding of scaling business models, from early stage to the quarterly cadence of a public company, is highly coveted from growth-stage startup companies to publicly-traded entities. Additionally, she has significant experience with corporate governance as the participant, provider and presenter of materials to Board of Directors meetings and related committee meetings, including audit, compensation, and nominating & governance. Janice adds her unique perspective to increase the effectiveness of many business dealings, and she accomplishes all endeavors with her proven style of genuine care and authenticity.
